Intel® Teach Elements – Project Based Approaches

Facilitation Option 1 – Facilitation Kit (for individual facilitators)

Process to obtain a Facilitation Kit for Project-Based Approaches:

1. Read the terms of use below.

2. Email or fax the signed form below to Intel's Regional Training Agency (RTA) in the Philippines:

   Ms. Sylvia Garde
   National Coordinator, Intel® Teach Program
   Foundation for Information Technology Education and Development, Inc.
   Email: sagarde@fit-ed.org
   Fax: (02) 9265356 or (02) 9207173

3. The RTA will respond – they will either seek clarification from you, or forward the Facilitation Kit by email. If you need to contact the RTA by telephone, please dial (02) 926-51-21 or 926-53-56. Look for the Intel Teach Program Coordinator or Assistant Program Coordinator.

TERMS OF USE
Intel Teach Elements: Project-Based Approaches Facilitation Guide

a) You may copy, print, or post to your own password-protected web site partial content from the Facilitation Guide provided:

- Content from the Facilitation Guide is shared only with those who are participating in the Course(s) that you are delivering.
- That the RTA is informed of upcoming trainings where the facilitation guide will be used
- Short training report including the names of participants in the course you facilitated is submitted to the Foundation for IT Education and Development, Inc. (sagarde@fit-ed.org)
- If content from the Facilitation Guide is posted to a password-protected site, you will only allow access to Course participants.
- You may not post the Intel copyrighted Facilitation Guide on a web site that is not password-protected or that is available to an audience broader than your participants

b) If other facilitators or potential facilitators wish to access the Facilitation Guide, you are required to refer them to Ms. Sylvia Garde sagarde@fit-ed.org to apply for their own copy. You are, however, entitled to share any course strategies or materials that you have created yourself.

c) Intel owns and retains all intellectual property rights in the Facilitation Guide.

☐ I have read and agree to the terms of use for the Intel Teach Elements Courses Facilitation Kit.
